

progetto Erasmus+ KA1

«An intercultural click»

2017 - 2019

Dublin

November 18-25, 2018

Participant technical staff

- Calvani Andrea
- Pignatiello Giuseppina

The Flights

November 18th

- Trieste (IT) - München (GER)
- München (GER) - Dublin (IRE)

November 25th

- Dublin (IRE) - Frankfurt (GER)
- Frankfurt (GER) - Trieste (IT)

The accomodation

We stayed at the Albany House Hotel, a comfortable and quiet hotel that offered a nice breakfast.

We were very lucky because the hotel is located in the same street of the ULearn school.

The lessons at the ULearn English School

The first day, after a short interview with the Director of studies, everyone was assigned to the class based on the previous knowledge of the English language.

The class consisted of about 12 students from all parts of the world (Japan, France, Russia, Italy, Spain, Saudi Arabia, China, Korea, Venezuela, ...)

Every day the lessons started at 9.00 a.m. and ended at 1.30 p.m.

The first 3 hours were dedicated to learning grammar and useful phrases (at the restaurant, while traveling, ...)

Giving your opinion in my opinion I think from my point of view..... for me ....	I could disagree <sup>more with</sup> Agree <sup>ing</sup> <sup>with you</sup> I <sup>totally</sup> agree with you Good point!! I go along with you That's true/correct You took the words right out of my mouth	Disagreeing I couldn't disagree more with you I take you but..... That's not true <sup>wrong</sup> <sup>rubbing salt</sup> <sup>bullet</sup>
--	---	--

KU: Sombel!

Start of meal

Eng: Enjoy!
FR: Bon appétit!
SP: Buen provecho/Que aproveche!
IT: Buon appetito!
JP: Gyoukuri douzo!
KO: Chai mok ket su de ta
PL: Smaczne!
RU: Priyet no go appetita!

New vocab

fussy eater (n) someone who is very selective about what they eat

My boyfriend is such a fussy eater. He won't eat anything that has corn in it.

Umami (adj): the taste of meat and mushrooms

The last part of the morning was reserved for conversation in other classroom with other teacher and students.

A period of volunteer service should be mandatory for young people
Campusory

Parents should read to their children as much as possible.

to feed

Everyone should learn to drive a car.
to drive

November 20th

Ian	Isabella	Ya-Wen	Alan
1. The US	1. Spain	1. Taiwan	1. Scotland
2. Taiwan	2. Scotland	2. US	2. Spain
3. cheap, many vegetarian options, people share food	3. haggis, foreign food	3. Taiwanese restaurants, health food stores, friends' houses	3. olive oil, fresh food, Eupus
4. nothing	4. Olive oil	4. rice	4. spicy curry
5. men fighting to share bill, people surprised he can use chopsticks	5. people not eating when drinking deep fried chocolate bars	5. big portions, blue cheese sauce, French fries, not sharing food	5. not much veg food, difficult to get non-Spanish food
6. skinny tsfu	6. bread and butter	6. same as 5	6. eating as late

Que.

New happy beforeh couldnt

All the teachers explained well, they are very nice and, very important, they were Irish!

On Friday, the last day of the course, we did an evaluation test to obtain the certificate.

Museums, monuments and other

We spent the afternoons visiting the city, together with Iris, Licia and Lorella, some colleagues from Trieste.

Dublin is a city that offers many ideas: we have visited the best Irish University, the Trinity College and inside the huge library where the famous Book of Kells is located.

ook?

The Book of Kells was written by four main scribes in a formal style of script known as 'insular majuscule'. Scribe A, who copied St John's gospel, was conservative and sober, generally leaving the decoration of his pages to others.

Scribe B, who enjoyed using coloured inks and calligraphic flourishes, was responsible for finishing certain sections and pages.

Scribe A: Book of Kells folio 311r (John 6.64-7.1)

Then we have visited the

St. Patrick Cathedral ...

the Little Museum...

the Dublin Castle (in maintenance)...

walking in the city, we met some important people of the past ...

James Joyce

Molly Malone

and last, but not least, ...

we visited the

where we learned its history and, step by step, how this famous beer is produced.

In the end, of course, ...

CHEERS

In the evening we had dinner in the typical pubs...

and we ate typical Irish dishes. Very good!

And on Saturday...

Usually the school organizes tours on Saturdays.

We went in North Ireland:

morning in Belfast ...

THEIR DEVOTION TO DUTY AND HEROIC
CONDUCT THROUGH WHICH THE LIVES OF MANY OF THOSE ON BOARD WERE SAVED HAD LEFT A RECORD OF CALM
FOURTEEN AND SIXTY-NINE WHICH WILL EVER BE REMEMBERED AS ONE OF
THE MOST GLORIOUS IN THE HISTORY
OF THE ARMY

GREATER LOVE HATH NO MAN THAN THIS
THAT A MAN LAY DOWN HIS LIFE FOR HIS FRIENDS

Memory of those who died on the 15th April 1912

Titanic Memorial Garden

The Titanic Memorial Garden was officially opened on 15 April 2012
by The Right Honourable, The Lord Mayor, Councillor Niall Ó Donnghaile to commemorate the centenary of the sinking of RMS Titanic and to remember all 1,512 people who tragically lost their lives that fateful evening.

YARDBIRD
CLUCKING
GOOD CHICKEN
UPSTAIRS AT THE
DIRTY ONION

THE DIRTY ONION. YARDBIRD

BELFAST'S OLDEST BUILDING. 1680.

...and afternoon to the Giant's Causeway in the far north of Ireland, a wonderful legendary place...

This week in Ireland was certainly positive: in a few days our English has improved and this will certainly be useful in everyday work because most of the manuals and computer documentation are in English.

Our hope is to repeat this wonderful experience in the future.

Thanks !